GENERAL LEGAL NOTICE OF ECCLESIASTICAL PRIVATE TRUST

Clements Private Trust

Dated: 7-16-2025

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as formal notice that the undersigned, acting under spiritual authority and sovereign right, is operating under the Clements Private Trust, an irrevocable, living, ecclesiastical trust formed under private ecclesiastical jurisdiction.

This trust exists outside the jurisdiction of civil, statutory, or corporate bodies, and is not subject to foreign codes, statutes, or legal presumptions. It operates under divine covenant, natural law, and ecclesiastical authority.

By this notice, the following is declared and affirmed:

1. The Clements Private Trust is duly established under divine spiritual jurisdiction.
2. All property, instruments, vehicles, assets, and members identified under the trust are protected by its ecclesiastical and spiritual authority.
3. This trust does not consent to the jurisdiction or authority of any foreign body, including but not limited to corporate, state, federal, or international agencies.
4. All interactions with members or property of this trust must respect the private, sovereign, and peaceful nature of the trust.
5. Any interference, coercion, or assumption of authority over this trust, its members, or its corpus shall be considered a trespass against ecclesiastical jurisdiction and divine covenant, and will be responded to accordingly.
6. No commercial activity is conducted by the trust in the form or intent of public commerce under UCC or statutory definition.

This notice is issued in peace and good faith, not to provoke, incite, or rebel, but to serve as a lawful, spiritual, and irrevocable record of jurisdictional standing.

Let it be known:

This Ecclesiastical Private Trust is sealed in spiritual law and requires no witness, no registration, and no notarization under foreign law. The authority of this Trust is divinely established, and this notice serves as full legal and ecclesiastical rebuttal to any presumption of jurisdiction.

Notice to agent is notice to principal. Notice to principal is notice to agent.

Sealed in Private Ecclesiastical Authority. No Witness Required.

By the Living Man:
Jonthan Daneil; Domus De Clements

Living Man operating under the Clements Private Trust

Dated: 7-19-2025

Location: [Jurisdiction-Free Territory / Ecclesiastical Domain]